Property Description

The Globe is an exclusive new development of six properties right in the heart of Argentière, with fantastic views and walking distance from the village center, public transport and the infamous Grands Montets ski lifts.

Completed in 2019 the properties are available for immediate delivery and are sold fully fitted and furnished to a high standard throughout. They can be purchased for exclusive use by the owner or for investors an option of rental management by Emerald Stay is available offering the possibility of reclaiming 20% TVA on purchase.

Each property comes with underfloor heating throughout and a wood burning stove insert for added ambiance.

Double underground parking, cellars and ski storage facilities are included in each sale.

Eyong is one of three prestigious apartments in the Globe development. It is the only property in the complex to house its own cinema and gym room and benefits from a 100m2 dual aspect terrace facing east and south to maximize on long lasting light. Also included with the property are a sauna and jacuzzi.

The main living space stretches across ground level. The open-plan kitchen dining and living area faces east-south-west. Two en-suite bedrooms face south and open on to the terrace, the other two face north-west, one en-suite one with separate shower-room. The fully equipped open-plan kitchen with island opens on to the dining area and living room. Two sets of double doors spill out to the generous dual aspect terrace with jacuzzi. An additional 75m2 on the lower ground level houses the cinema and gym rooms, sauna, shower room with WC, ski tech room with another 35m2 making up the garage and cellar.

Unique opportunity for a fully furnished turnkey product complete with reduced notary fees and 10 year construction guarantee in place.
