Property Description

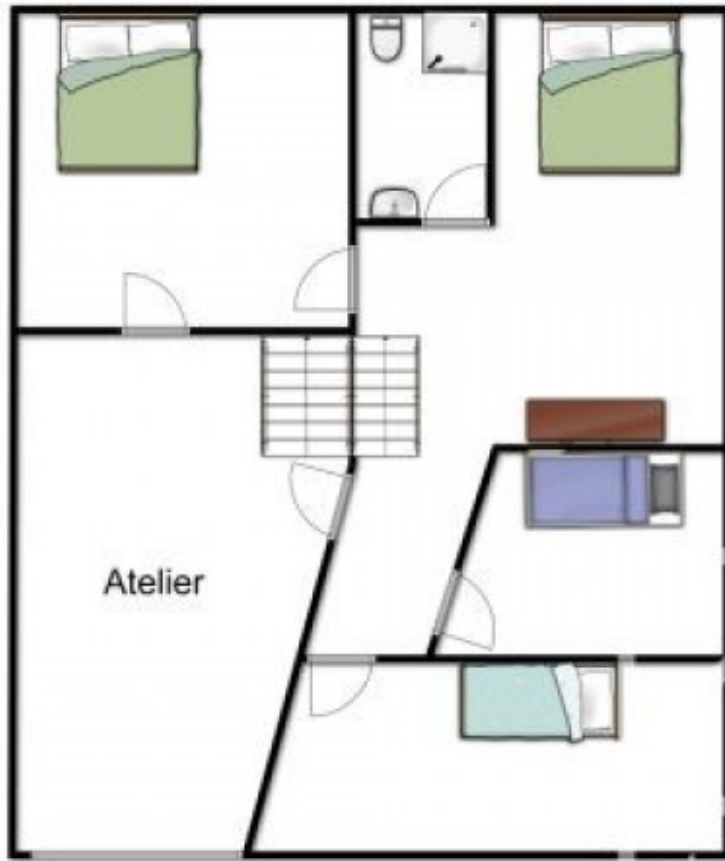

This is a 19th Century alpine chalet d'alpage with a stone foundation and timber framework. The chalet has undergone some renovations and much of the charm of the original construction has been maintained with exposed beams and stonework. A septic tank would have to be installed within a year of purchase as there is currently no acceptable waste drainage system. This is likely to cost in the region of 20.000€.

It has 4 bedrooms (2 double/2 single), a bathroom, storage/workshop with stairs leading to a large loft space that could be renovated and open plan tiled living space of kitchen, dining room and lounge with log burner. The lounge leads to a south-facing conservatory with cellar and terrace with log store from where both the roaring waterfall and the stunning rockface opposite can be admired.

It is perched on the quiet hillside on the summer route to Morzine and is only 8 mins by car to the ski lifts in Les Gets and a stone's throw from the little gem of a resort that is Praz de Lys with its downhill and extensive cross country skiing as well as kilometres of marked snow-shoeing tracks. From the bottom of one of the treelined runs, a skiable track leads back to close to the chalet so no need to take the car! Simply hop on the bus and ski home!
