Property Description

Very rarely found in Morzine with ski in and ski out access just 50m away, this is an exceptional property finished to the highest standards and with real attention to detail. The chalet, which was built in 2012, commands a fantastic position and benefits from sunshine all day with views over Morzine and down the valley. It is only 5 minutes walk from the centre of Morzine but also offers peace and tranquility, as there is still a lot of agricultural land around it.

The property offers the following accommodation over 3 split levels -
