Property Description

Chalet La Chapelle is a fantastic, modern chalet comprising 3 independent apartments. It lends itself to a wide variety of uses, from a family or holiday home, to a rental or gite business.

The location is perfect being a short walking distance from the pistes/chairlift of Cret Beni, and the centre of La Chapelle d'Abondance. It is a quality property with a sunny, south facing outlook.

On the ground floor is an independent apartment with 2 bedrooms and a coin montagne bunk room. There is also a laundry area, and ample storage including ski/boot storage in the entrance hall.

On the main floor is a spacious 2 bedroom apartment with wood burning stove and large sunny terrasse.

On the top floor is a spacious 3 bedroom apartment.

This chalet is a ready-made apartment rental business. However, there is also an interior staircase joining all three floors so it could easily be transformed into just one chalet.

Outside is ample parking for a number of cars, a space prepared for a pool if required, a storage room for bikes etc and even an underground wine cellar. The property also benefits from a gas powered central heating system.
