Property Description

Are you torn between an apartment and a chalet? Demi chalet des Feux is perfect for you! It offers an area of about 130m² over 3 levels plus a mazot of about 10m², a beautiful outdoor space with a breathtaking view of the mountains, optimal exposure, and a small green space that requires little maintenance!

Built on the rocky promontory of Les Feux in the 1990s by a local builder, and enjoying a stunning view of the Aravis and the valley, the chalet has been vertically divided into 2 dwellings.

Demi chalet des Feux thus has its own independent entrance, leading to a hallway with space for a dressing room. It then opens onto a hallway with a WC and toilet, leading to the living area where the equipped kitchen is open to the living/dining room. A wood burner in the living area provides warmth and comfort during winter evenings. Two French doors allow access to the southwest-facing balcony and the very large terrace overlooking the courtyard.

The upper floor has 3 bedrooms, 2 of which have access to a balcony, a bathroom, and a WC. The basement, accessible via a staircase from the ground floor or garden level, consists of a double cellar, a garage with an automatic door, and a large ski room.

The covered space under the terrace can accommodate 3 additional cars, and the mazot located near the main entrance, equipped with a kitchenette, shower, and WC, is ideal for teenagers seeking some privacy!

It only takes 3 minutes by car to reach the resort centre or the slopes.

Modernising work is to be expected, as well as roof and terrace renovations. These works have been taken into account in determining the sale price.
