Inside, the chalet features a spacious, light-filled open-plan living area with vaulted ceilings, warm timber finishes, and a striking suspended log burner as the centrepiece. Large picture windows and French doors lead out to a number of terraces, one with a jacuzzi, and all ideal for soaking in the panoramic mountain views. A separate kitchen serves the superb dining area that can comfortably seat all guests for convivial moments around the table.

Each of the seven bedrooms is elegantly appointed, all with modern bathrooms and some with private balcony, offering comfort and privacy for guests.
